Look at it our way:
Take a peek.
Stare.
Do a double take.
Give us a once-over or a searching look,
but CHECK US OUT!
We're alive on these pages, and anyway you look at it, we're the best.

Any Way you look at it

Open up this book:

See Dick run the 4-40. See Jane ace the SAT's. See Robin wrap up the sports news. See Matt pin his opponent. See Jackie and Dana slam those birdies. See Greg and Kelley take their bows.

See the Class of 1992 collect food, save a life, walk for hunger, help a river run clean and cool, visit Moscow, and protest human oppression around the world.

We've looked at the world from the sidelines, from the frontlines, and from a distance. We've viewed life through a camera lens, through microscopes, through telescopes, and sometimes through rose-colored glasses. This yearbook is one last look back before we set our sights on what's ahead for the Class of 1992.

A deceiving calm settles over Billerica High.

Junior Prom "IN YOUR EYES"

Anyway you look at it, the Junior Prom was a memorable experience. With the sun shining, the breeze blowing, and the view of the bay, the Danvers Port Yacht Club made for the perfect location. "In Your Eyes" by Peter Gabriel reflected the magic of the evening on May 10, 1991.

The meal was a tossed salad, a choice of shrimp or prime rib, and chocolate mousse for dessert. The tables were illuminated by candle-lit center pieces. The room was decked in moss green elegance.

At ten o'clock, the festivities started as the selection of the queen and her court began. The decision was difficult since everyone looked her best. Twelve roses were distributed and as the crowd cleared, the court was evident. The selection of the queen was more difficult. As time passed and the music played, Debbie O'Neill, who was accompanied by Jeff Busnach, was chosen as prom queen. Diane Cefalo, Christine Legro, Shannon MacDonald, Brenda Mary, and Karen Pearson completed the court.

The guests of honor- Dr. and Mrs. Sharkey, Mr. and Mrs. McLellan, Mr. and Mrs. Bejtlich, Ms. Adam, Mr. and Mrs. Johansen, and Mr. and Mrs. Devlin were delighted with the outcome of the evening's success.

Looking back, we realize the evening was a night to remember. A night full of memories, good times, and good friends.

Powder Puff Only One Way To See It: Seniors Rule

The senior powderpuff team was strong this year in the face-off between the junior and senior women. Seniors stole the game right away from the juniors with the guidance of referees Jody Norton and Jeff Klane. The skill of Jackie Pettingell, Holly Sherwood, Tanya Tamis, Michelle Rouine, and a host of other seniors reigned victorious over Mr. Lancaster's junior neophytes. The team wants to thank Mr. Doherty for his successful coaching efforts.

Watch Out, Chelmsford!

On a cold and clear morning the Billerica Indians awoke with a mission: to beat the Chelmsford Lions on Thanksgiving Day. Coming into the game with a record of 7-2 and under the leadership of our poised seniors it was going to be a battle. At home, the Marshall school was the site of this clash. With a sold out stadium and hardly any standing room former Indian Tom Glavine tossed the coin to start the game. The Indians won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff from Chelmsford.

Both teams played a strong hard-nosed game and were unable to put points on the board until there was a breakdown. Unfortunately that breakdown was on the side of the Indians. The second half Chelmsford had received the ball and successfully mounted a drive to score, despite the valiant efforts of senior starters Dana Cottrell, Shane Graham, Chris Doyle, Dennis Pasche, John Albanese, Craig Flynn, Matt and Jason Tholander. (continued next page)

All was not lost, the Indians mounted an impressive attack which resulted in a touchdown to make the score 22-16 with little time remaining. A last on-side kick attempt by John Keough came up just short and the Indians lost one of the most exciting football games in our High Schools history. The entire team deserves credit for one of the greatest seasons ever.

Back: John Keough, Lisa DiRocco, Diane Cefalo, Brian Gibson. Front: Class Advisors, Mrs. Betjlich and Mrs. Johanson.

ANY WAY you look at Seniors

Many Things Seem To Separate Us As Seniors. Some Excel In Sports, Others In Academics, And Others In The Community. One May Play The Trumpet, Another Slaps A Hockey Stick, And Yet Another Uses A Paint Brush. A Person Can Design A House, Publish A Newspaper, Solve A Calculus Problem Or Plan Out A Team Strategy.

The Bottom Line Is: No Matter How Different We Are, We Are The Pride Of Billerica. Any Way You Look At Seniors, We're The Class Of 1992 And We're Together.

Watch The Birdie!

The annual Senior Holiday Badminton Tournament was changed this year due to the reinstatement of co-ed gym classes. Many seniors were upset by the possibility of juniors competing in the final round of the "senior" tournament. Luckily, all semi-finalists were members of the senior class. Dana Cottrell and Jackie Pettingell defeated opponents Ty Munson and Kathy Doyle. John Falzone and Holly Sherwood beat partners Chris Pacheco and Melissa Rollins. In an exciting final match, Dana and Jackie seized the win from John and Holly to become this year's champions.

ANY WAY you look at Fall Sports

Fall is a great season for shoes. Football and soccer cleats, spiked golf shoes, Nike saddle shoes, and the best Reebok and Addidas have to offer for running off the beaten path. Or sometimes fall is a great time for no shoes at all when you're doing the ultimate workout in the pool. Barefoot can be best.

Shoes were busy in the fall of 1991. Awesome records were turned in by the girls and boys soccer teams. The football team kept us on the edge of our seats on T-day. The girls volleyball team captured the MVC Large School title with a 17-5 record. On the playing fields of Billerica, busy feet are happy feet. Watch us in action in the following pages.

Top: The boys soccer team displayed a good defense as they made their way to post-season play.

Watch Us In Action: Varsity Football

The 1991 varsity football team enjoyed a very successful season. Although the Indians were decimated by the graduation of key seniors, they managed to put together their best season in recent years. The Indians started the season with two sloppy games, one a 14-7 win over Dracut, the other a heartbreaking 16-11 loss to Methuen. Billerica bounced back well and routed Wilmington 23-8. The following Saturday, the tribe challenged the third ranked team in the state, powerhouse Central Catholic. The Indians, led by sophomore Mike Mastrullo, turned in their best effort of the year, and scored 32 first-half points en route to a 32-21 triumph. Billerica then rolled through consecutive shutouts: a 20-0 win over Lowell, and a 30-0 whitewashing of Tewksbury. Billerica upped its winning streak to five games when they beat oversized Haverhill 28-14, in a game controlled by Billerica's linemen. The Indians found themselves ranked among the state's elite teams with a chance at the MVC title. Unfortunately, Billerica's train was derailed the following Friday night on a cold Andover field as they lost 17-0. After a victory at Lawrence, Billerica met MVC and superbowl champion Chelmsford. Billerica lost the see-saw battle 22-16 to conclude their season. The Indians finished the season with a 7-3 record, third in the Merrimack Valley Conference.

Watch Us In Action: Fall Cheering

The football cheering squad began their season in July with a trip to Emmanuel College Cheering Camp. While there, the relatively young squad gained experience, instruction, and a winning attitude. They left the camp looking forward to a promising season and with a trophy for the most outstanding team.

Practices began in August and continued through Thanksgiving. Although practice was sometimes frustrating, the team always managed to keep goals in mind and form close friendships. Everyone contributed to the choreography of dance and competition routines. Experience and talent was brought to the team by seniors Debbie O'Neill and Marrya Mattarrazza. Jen Babbit and Elaine Polsi complimented the squad with their all around ability. The four quad-captains helped to encourage the squad to overcome occasional struggles and differences in opinion.

The squad participated in Billerica's first Yankee Doodle Homecoming Weekend and parade. All season the squad cheered for an outstanding team and kept the BMHS spirit alive. The squad would like to thank their advisor Vincent Defeo for his many years of commitment.

Watch Us In Action: Boys Varsity Soccer

The boys' soccer team had a highly successful season in 1991 despite not reaching its original goal of winning the MVC title. Under the direction of first-year Varsity coach Joe Loduca, the team made it to the state tournament with a record of 12-4-1 after having just missed the tournament the year before.

The team started off on the right foot, winning six of its first seven games including a 2-1 victory over arch-rival Chelmsford. It was the first time that the boys had beaten Chelmsford in their careers. The forwards and midfielders came through with the best offensive start in recent history scoring thirty goals in the first seven games. Leading the charge were Scott and Todd Rumley, Tom Durant, Ty Munson, Dennis Baniewicz, and Bob Ross.

After a tough tie with Lowell and a disappointing loss to Andover, the boys won three straight games, and six of their last eight. Included in that stretch were a 3-0 blanking of Chelmsford under the lights at Chelmsford, and a 1-0 whitewashing of previously unbeaten Lowell. The defense by Joe Salerno, John Quinlan, Bernie Hogan, Eric Pacheco, and Richie Casalini along with keeper Aaron Duncan was exceptionally well in those two games, and they were the backbone of the team the rest of the season.

The team had a chance to get even with St. John's Prep in the first tournament game. The Indians had lost every game against St. John's in the past four years, including two tournament losses. After regulation time, multiple overtime periods, and a shootout, the game was still tied. The referees called the game because of darkness, to be resumed two days later. The teams returned for two overtime periods. The boys played hard, having to play a man short due to a red card, and won the overtime easily.

It was a tired and hurt team that went to Tufts University to play top-seeded Medford. Although a gallant effort was put forth, the team ended up on the short end of a 1-0 score, ending the season and the seniors' careers.

Watch Us In Action: Girls Soccer

This was the best season for the girls' soccer team. The girls became M.V.C. champs with an undefeated record of 16-0-2. In the first of two games against Andover, played in Andover, the teams tied 1-1. However, when Andover came to Billerica the girls were ready. They beat their number one rival 3 to 1 and broke Andover's 5 year winning streak. During the tournament the girls beat Waltham and North Andover, which put them in the semi-finals. The girls lost to Framingham in the second sudden-death overtime when Framingham scored with only 30 seconds left to play. This loss ended the girls' season, but this is the furthest the girls' soccer team has gone in tournament play. The team, which seemed like a family, ended the season with an overall record of 18-1-2.

The team was led by tri-captains, seniors Nikki Fitzgerald and Laurie Pucillo, and junior Tanya Yavarow. Leading scorer was Danielle Ouellette, followed by Amy DeGironimo and Nikki Fitzgerald.

M.V.C. All-Conference players were Laurie Pucillo, Nikki Fitzgerald, Tanya Yavarow, Danielle Ouellette, Amy DeGironimo, and Heather Andrews. M.V.C. All-Star players were Alison Morrissey, Jill Dempsey, Nicole Tzannos, Sindi Boudreau, and Dawn Passerini, who could not play because of a knee injury.

Watch Us In Action: Boys Cross Country

The Indian Cross-Country team, plagued by problems, achieved a 1-9 record in the fall '91 season. Team members were few; a loss of eight graduates of the class of '91 left the team with five returning competitors. The team was just short of the seven members needed for a team. Latecomers Dave Fay, Anthony Razzino, and Ken Holbrook were much welcomed, as they brought the team over the requirement.

The win obtained by the Indians was a tri-meet against Andover and Methuen. Methuen was easily defeated, 39-19. Runners also placed well opposite Andover, one of the power teams this season.

Junior Co-captain Corey Cameron was the mainstay of the team. Cameron won five out of ten meets and earned All-Conference honors. Darren Marsh also competed well, earning All-Star recognition. The team wishes luck to senior Co-captain Chuck Legg and looks forward to a great '92 season.

Watch Us In Action: Girls Cross Country

This year's Girls Varsity Cross-Country team showed pride and sportsmanship. The team crossed the finish line with a five and four record.

Leading the team were Tri-Captains Kim English, Michelle Rouine, and Robin Lynch. The team consisted of nineteen runners in all.

Senior Tri-Captain Michelle Rouine placed second on the team, with her great athletic ability and attitude pulling her across the line.

Senior Tri-Captain Robin Lynch crossed the line in third place, with her silver smile and "large" strides that let her get the edge against the competition.

"Modest" Laura Traynham had an excellent season, placing first for the team and gaining recognition of MVC "All Conference" to tie up her season.

Senior Tri-Captain Kim English, who was unfortunately injured in the middle of her season, played a very crucial role for the team. Kim was always there to help Coach Tobin when needed and always gave confidence to the new runners.

Senior Cheryl Morgan and Juniors Bernadette Donovan and Carolyn Murray were the team's middle runners.

Best of luck to the 1992 Cross-Country team and special congratulations to the 1992 Captains of the team; Laura Traynham, Bernadette Donovan, and Carolyn Murray. "Remember to keep running down the happiest street in the world!"

Watch Us In Action: Girls' Varsity Volleyball

The girls volleyball team had an outstanding season with a 17-5 record. The team captured the M.V.C. Large School title by defeating Chelmsford in a dramatic three set victory.

This year's team will be graduating eleven seniors. The team finished the season with six All-Stars and four All-Conference players. They are co-captain Kayleen McNulty (All-Star, All-Conference), co-captain Jackie Pettingell (All-Star, All-Conference), Jenn O'Sullivan (All-Star), and Holly Sherwood (All-Star). Other graduating seniors are Karen Hayes, Kristie St. Cyr, Katie Callery, Tracey Milliken, Kerry Jenkins and Melissa Rollins.

The season didn't end the way the team would have wanted but the team was runner-up in the North Sectional Finals. The team grew together this year and became friends on and off the court. The team would like to wish the best of luck to Beth Love and Melissa Rochefort and special thanks to their coach Karen McNulty.

Watch Us In Action: Golf

The varsity golf team's record of six wins, eight losses, and two ties may sound like an unsuccessful season, but to Coach Cowdrey, three returning lettermen, and seven first year team members, it was a great achievement.

The team was led by senior captain Jody Norton and junior captain Karl Infanger. Seniors Bob Saunders and Mike Mowder were first year players, but they played excellent all year. Their consistency kept every match competitive. Juniors Chris Warren and Rich Thurber, sophomores Scott Bulksa and Chris Roncari, and freshmen Mike Cotta and Paul Penti will keep the team on top of the MVC for years to come.

Highlights of the season were victories over powerhouse Haverhill and MVC champs Lowell. Other victories included Wilmington, Tewksbury, Methuen, and Dracut.

The team sent three golfers to the states: Jody Norton, Karl Infanger, and Mike Cotta. They all played well, but unfortunately none of them made the cut.

The graduating seniors wish the team luck and future success in the seasons to come.

Watch Us In Action: Swimming

The season started quite well with many returning swimmers. There were also many new faces, ready and eager to learn and contribute to the team.

We ended the season with 5 wins, 4 more than the previous season. With the help of Coach Anthony Fiore and Assistant Coach Bunny MacNeil, the team not only improved their times, but also kept the spirit high.

The Swim Team is sad to say goodbye to its four seniors: Jolene Albrecht, Lisa Oliveri, Melissa Trant, and Liz Casey.

Jolene Albrecht, a veteran of four years, and captain for two swam all events and her leadership and experience will be missed.

Three year veteran Lisa Oliveri provided the team with energy and enthusiasm. A backstroker, she was a valuable member of the team and we are sad to see her go.

Breaststroker Melissa Trant, also a member for three years, had great determination and strength and we wish her good luck in future years.

Liz Casey, a member of three years, swam freestyle. her cheering, spirit, and comedy provided the fun side of swimming. A significant team member, she will be missed.

All in all the swim team had a great season, and hopefully the spirit and stamina of this years team will stay throughout the forthcoming season.

Yearbook: Through Our Eyes

So many pages, so little time, so little help! Hard work is the name of the game when it comes to yearbook. The 232 pages you hold before you are the result of long days and nights of technical, stressful work, as well as several Dominoes pizzas and boxes of Dunkin Donuts. Thanks to advisors Mr. Flynn and Ms. Marinaro, this book has finally become a reality.

The yearbook begins with a three day camp designed to teach layout design, copy writing, and yearbook organization. This year's editorial staff of Cassie Gorman, Patricia Morrison, Lisa Oliveri, Robyn Hammer, and Cheryl Jollimore led a small but diligent group of seniors and junior interns into the dark waters of yearbook design.

The theme, Anyway You Look At It, was based on a feeling that our class can be looked at from any angle with a positive response.

Student Government

The 1991-92 BMHS Student Government continued its tradition of trying to effect positive change in the school community. Led by President Jared Bibler, Vice President Bill O'Rourke, Secretary Kevin Brown, and Moderator Angela Franco, the group devoted the first part of the year to revising and streamlining its Constitution.

Following this, proposals were handed up to the administration attempting to guarantee the confidentiality and speedy delivery of students' PSAT scores and lift the semester exam requirement for students with an 'A' average. (Neither saw action from the school administration.)

In addition, the Student Government continued to discuss issues of concern to the student body such as open campus policy, Honor Roll restructuring, physical education attendance policy, and recycling.

Marching Band And Color Guard

The B.M.H.S. Marching Band and Color Guard were part of the exciting fall schedule of events. Besides attending every football game and rooting on the team, the band had a very busy competition schedule of its own. Traveling to Connecticut three times and Cape Cod once this season made for long trips and weary band members.

The band's size had decreased to 43 musicians and 20 colorguard; competition was hard to find. Most groups in this category are located in New York and New Jersey. By competing in Class II of the Eastern Marching Band Association the students, on occasion, had no competition at all; the band could only improve on its score and compare performancews to the larger classes. Many times the scores were good enough to have placed with these larger groups.

On November 16 and 17, 1991, with the music of Carl Orff's Carmina Burana and the drill firmly memorized, the band set off to New Jersey for the EMBA finals. Under the senior leadership of Drum Major Pat Morrisonl, Drum Line Captain Cindi Misenor, Colorguard Captain Karen Rivard and Assistant Captain Cassie Gorman, the group faced unfamiliar competitors.

As the band marched away from the performance field members could hear the applause of the crowd. Smiles came to their faces; their pride was overflowing. They knew they had given their best performance of the season, but would that be enough? When they received none of the special awards, hearts began to sink, but eventually final scores were revealed. B.M.H.S. won the EMBA championship over Linden High by .70!

All the hard work finally paid off. The captains as well as seniors Craig Bridge, Kevin Brown, Erik Dow, Jeanette Fiori, Laura January, Kim Mederios;, Bill O'Rourke, and Lynn Petersen helped the band to success.

Grim Reaper Day

On April 16th, the dead walked the halls of B.M.H.S. to alert fellow students to the huge number of people who die in alcohol-related accidents each year.

"Grim Reaper Day," sponsored by S.A.D.D., employed student volunteers who painted their faces white, wore black, and were silent the whole day to connote death. In the Home Ec. room, Ms. Ahern and Mr. Ouellette applied dead-white stage makeup to an evergrowing army of zombies who finally totaled 123. Their eerie presence made students aware of the chilling statistic that one person is killed in an alcohol-related accident every 20 minutes.

ANY WAY you look at Winter Sports

There's no better place to spend a cold, bleak winter than in a hot, sweaty gym. But don't think we were hibernating in a sleepy state for those frozen months. Billerica athletes were logging in victory after victory, as they slam-dunked, hurdled, vaulted, and checked their way through several winning seasons.

The boys basketball team rebounded after a poor '91 season to be MVC champs in '92. The girls gymnastic team sent Elaine Polsi to the Nationals in Las Vegas. Seniors Paul Cotta and Steve MacIntosh led the hockey team into post-season play to be MVC champs once again. Senior track captains Nikki Fitzgerald, Michelle Rouine, and Robyn Hammer commanded the team through a rebuilding season never losing by more than six points.

So if you want to call these winners gym rats, go ahead. But if you say it to heavy weight champ Matt Tholander you had better be smiling.

Girls Basketball

The Girls Varsity basketball team had a tough season this year. However, they managed to capture a championship at the Greater Lowell Christmas Tournament. There were three All-Stars named at this tournament: Tri-Capt. junior Heather Andrews, Tri-Capt. senior Karen Hayes, and Tri-Capt. senior Jackie Pettingell.

The team practiced hard all season and played hard as well. Their first M.V.C. victory was against Wilmington (50-40). This year the team will be graduating three seniors: Tanya Tamis, Tri-Capt. Karen Hayes, and Tri-Capt. Jackie Pettingell. The team will be led next year by juniors Heather Andrews, Kim Norman, Danielle Ouellette, Alison Morissey, Christine Texiera, Melissa Rochefort, and Beth kellerman. Also, sophomore Mary Battock and Courtney Cronin will contribute next year.

Boys Basketball
Look At Us Now

After just one year, the Boys Basketball team turned around a torturous 1-18 season to a championship season. They finished with a record of 12-3 in the Merrimack Valley Conference to capture the Large School Crown, and finished the season with an overall record of 14-6. This year was the first time a championship has been won by Billerica Boys Basketball in the Large School Division in 15 years.

The team was led by four seniors who had experienced the down side of the previous year and continued to help bring a championship to Billerica High. They were Jim Calo, John Falzone, Jody Norton, and Chris Pacheco. The juniors, Dennis Baniewicz, Aaron Duncan, Jason Reid, and Chirag Shah, also made a major contribution. The addition of sophomores Ken Davis and Mike Mastrullo, to round off the team, proved to be two vital components who helped in the 1991-92 banner season.

The highlight of the season was a victory over Andover that capped off a nice winning streak. The outcome of the game would decide who would be in sole position of first place coming down to the last weeks of the season. In front of a packed gymnasium, the two teams kept on trading baskets to the last seconds of play, where the Indians remained on top in front of the hostile crowd cheering their team to victory. This game proved to be a vital win, which put the Indians in first place and kept them there for the rest of the season.

Winter Cheering

The 1992 Basketball Cheerleaders had a successful season. The team was led by senior co-captains Jennifer Donovan and Chrisine Anton. Cheering their basketball team on were seniors Christine Anton, Tammy Cardia, Jennifer Donovan, Tammy Mackie, Jennie Magarau, Cheryl Morgan, Jen O'Sullivan, Karen Pearson, juniors Wendy Zangri, Kelly Ryan, and sophomores Katie Chalpin, Jenn Critch, Leslie Mauriello and Michelle Venezia.

The squad perfected their routines at the Emmanuel College Cheering Camp. All the girls worked hard and won many spirit awards and the "Superior" trophy.

These girls choreographed many routines and showed their spirit at a winter rally and by cheering their boys to victory at the basketball games and a post-season tournament.

The cheerleaders would like to say thank you to Rosie Petrosillo. They really appreciated everything she did. And thanks to Mr. DeFeo. They couldn't have done it without him.

Good luck to next year's girls!

Hockey
Look At Us Now

The 1991-1992 Hockey team was young and inexperienced. With only 3 seniors returning from last year: Paul Cotta, John Quinlan, and Steve MacIntosh, the Indian icemen finished a respectable season with a 13-3-2 record. They also went on to capture their fifth consecutive MVC title. When the team went into the Division 1 States, they had just gotten the news of their coach, Mark Jenkins', retirement at the end of the season. It was during this round that the Indian icemen beat Weymouth 3-2, on a last second goal made by Steve MacIntosh. Next, the team faced Burlington, where they lost a 6-4 heartbreaker to end the career of Mark Jenkins. The team wishes Mark Jenkins and Coach Esposito the best of luck in the future.

Boys Indoor Track
Look At Us Now

The Boys track team was led by tri-captains Greg Zuik, Todd Driscoll and John Keough and a small senior nucleus. The Billerica Memorial High School's Boys Indoor Track team had a more sucessful season than in the past. They finished the season with a record of 4-4 in one of the most competitive leagues in the state. The team did well considering they had a small number of seniors. However, they had a large number of underclassmen who helped a great deal, and all of whom competed well in many invitationals.

The star of the team was junior Corey Cameron, who ran the 600 yard run, ran the first leg of the mile relay, and was the best high jumper on the team. At the State Coaches' Meet, he ran his best time in the 600, with a time of 1:15.7 and placed fifth. Then in the state meet he ran a time of 1:17.9 to take second in the northern Area Meet. Corey was underfeated in the year, taking first in the 600 five times, and in the 1000 two times.

Other standouts were Greg Zuik who tied the school record in the 50 yard dash with a time of 5.6. and also set a school record in the 60 yard dash in the state meet competition with a time of 6:55.

The mile relay team consisted of senior Paul Brady, juniors Tom Davies and Corey Cameron, and freshman Brendan Finn. The team places sixth in the State Relays with a time of 3:57.4 and placed seventh in the Class A meet with a time of 3:55.8.

Other contributing seniors to the team were John Barbarossa and Chris Giroux.The head coach was Chip Jones, assisted by Bill Cameron and Peter Flynn.

Girls Gymnastics
Look At Us Now

This year the gymnastics team discovered what the meaning of gymnastics is. It is not always to win, but to enjoy what you do and be respected for that. What mattered to them most was to be not only a team, but to be friends as well.

Although the team only won three meets- against North Andover, Wilmington, and Lowell- many of the team's goals and personal goals were accomplished during the season.

With such an inexperienced team, with only seven returning lettermen and only three of those being seniors, there was a lot of time and hard work given by all, especially Coach Ducharme and Lynne Polsi, to get the team ready for their first meet against Dracut. Their goal for that meet was to break one hundred. They scored a 106.95 and went on from there to reach a high of 1134.8 against Andover.

Senior Stephanie Orthman nearly completed her goal on vault, bringing up her score nearly a point. Jenn Babbitt, also a senior, did an outstanding job competing on floor and beam. Jenn managed to increase her floor score by an astounding two and a half points. These two seniors have been on the beam for the past four years.

Senior captain Elaine Polsi had an excellent season, placing fifth in the MVC and achieving an all-around total of 33.6 against Andover. Elaine qualified for the sectionals on beam and bars. From their she qualified on bars for the state meet, where she placed eighth.

Through aches and pains, illnesses and injuries, the team has proven that Bilerica gymnasts have the spirit, dedication and determination to keep smiling and perform well.

Look At Us Now

This season's wrestling team was one of the best teams the high school has ever had. The Indians were Division 1 North Sectional Champions. The team sent Sean Jaenkins, Chris Gelormini, Kirk Legatos, Doug Morriera, John Burrows, Joe Manne, Nick Christakis, and senior captain Matt Tholander to the Division 1 Massachusetts State Championships. The starting line-up for the team included the eight wrestlers sent to the State Championships, as well as Matt Broucha, Matt Babcock, Bernie Hogan, Keith Gamble, and senior captain Jason Tholander pre-injury. Filling in when needed were Matt Hogan, Bill Hogan, Adam Razzaboni, Rich Antonellis, Todd Baldwin, Jamie Ross, Eric Witala, Jay Pucillo, and others

Layoffs Curb B.M.H.S. Curriculum

During our junior year we were faced with many tough situations. Many of our courses were being cut as teachers were laid off due to hard economic times. Despite this, junior and senior English classes received a student teacher this year. Does Joseph Modzelewski perhaps forsee a turn around in education with an opportunity for teaching careers?

During the 1991-1992 school year, many positions were eliminated. These fourteen positions included math, English, social studies, science and computer teachers. The budget was cut by $ 1,445,516 during the 1990-1991 school year and even more during the 1991-1992 school year. In order to participate on a sports team, a user fee of $135 was initiated. There was also a $60 dollar fee for participation in after-school clubs. Consequently many of the clubs and organizations are not operating this year. Various other programs that were eliminated include: Night School, R.O.T.C., Freshman sports and several high-school clubs.

Hopefully, the 1992-1993 academic year will improve. Dr. Calabrese has proposed a budget that will enable three full- time and one part-time teacher to return. This would include social studies, English, science and computer resources positions to return to the High School. Also, his proposal would help to restore many of the electives which were dropped due to budgetary constraints.

Despite all this, student-teacher Mr. Modzelewski has chosen to pursue a career in teaching. A graduate of S Anselm's high school in Pittsburg Pennsylvania, he has held a variety jobs. His interest in English peak when he began his novel on the Sc tish Deer Hound. Following this, decided to obtain his Master's degr at the University of Lowell.

Mr. Modzelewski was given the o portunity to choose the site of educational internship. He chose ica High because he was recommended to Mr. McDermott and Mrs. Breen by a colleague. Another factor which influenced his choice was that B.M.H.S. is a public school. Mr. Modzelewski noted that "there is more diversity" than a private academy.

Despite the economy, Modzelewski got into teaching because it is something he enjoys doing. He hopes someday to teach at the college level or maybe obtain a job in educational administration. He says it depends on his first few years as an educator and the economic climate.

According to Modzelewski, "I enjoy teaching because I leave work with a happy feeling. Also, here at B.M.H.S., I have gotten to know people better than I thought I would and that has been great. The students here make me feel very comfortable teaching."

Hopefully, within the next few years the economy will revive, society will focus on education, and laid off teachers, as well as new teachers like Mr. Modzelewski, will be able to do the work they love.

Testing The Waters

It was no day at the beach on October 17, 1992, when Chris Giroux, Lisa DiRocco, Debbie O'Neill, Terri Burke, Jeff Little, Kim Medieros, Julie Callahan, Laura Sexton, and Karen Vickers traveled to the glorious Concord River. They were there for business: they went to to test the waters for the Merrimack River Watershed Project and collect living organisms for Mr. Flynn's Lab. Some not-so-living organisms were also found, including parts of tire treads, some lip balm, and about six miles of fishing line.

The work done by the students was only a small part of the annual interstate project to measure the volume and effects of pollutants in the Concord River. All told, the river was in measurably better condition than last year. There were improvements in visibility and the volume of bacteria and acid. However, these good fortunes are by no means expected to be permanent. This is why the Watershed Project along the Concord River is expected to be a feature of Biology classes to come.

The project wasn't just counting leeches and worms. Some members of the all-student research team had the opportunity to travel to the Student Congress in Manchester, N.H. on November 17, 1992, to present their information to the other groups of students working on the project. All the information from all the teams working on the River was amassed to produce a final report on the river's condition.

There was no ticker-tape parade for the young scientists, but the students' work didn't go unnoticed. Local newspapers as well as television crews could be found along the river scouting the banks for the youths in action.

The project incited the imaginations of the students and gave them a true hands-on experience in the field of environmental studies, not to mention a day out of school.

Bone Marrow Drive

On November 7, 1991, Billerica Memorial High School students and surrounding communities showed their support for Mr. Paul Stanton, a teacher at the school. Friends, students, and parents donated time, money, and even a bit of themselves to help find a bone marrow donor that matched Mr. Stanton's type.

The students for Paul Stanton Committee, coordinated by senior Keri Boyd and Mr. Don Stavely, designed a t-shirt and donated proceeds from sales to the bone marrow blood test search. These "Friends for life" t-shirts also exhibited the moral support the whole school had for Mr. Stanton. A sea of white t-shirts filled the school.

On November 7th 11:00A.M. to 5:00 P.M. in the Memorial gymansium, hundreds of volunteers came to take a blood test in an attempt to give the precious gift of life. Stations were set up to direct the flow of people from an introduction and the paper process through the testing and recovery areas. In addition to the many students and faculty volunteers who coordinated the event and were tested, many dedicated and concerned people from the community and surrounding towns turned out to help in the search. The total number of volunteers came to almost seven hundred people, an amazing demonstration of love and support. The original goal of two hundred and fifty people was almost tripled.

Mr. and Mrs. Giroux, close friends and co-workers of Mr. Stanton established another committee in charge of public relations and fundraising. They put in a considerable amount of time and effort to sign people up and promote the "Miracle Match," the slogan used during the drive.

As a result of the great efforts and outpouring of human kindness, four people who were tested were possible matches to Mr. Stanton's bone marrow type. On July 23, a bone marrow donor was located, and after a transplant at Brighman and Women's Hospital one of Stanton's doctors says his chances of survival are now 70 percent.

Mr. Stanton's ordeal is by no means over, weeks of isolation and months of recovery remain, but the chances of Mr. Stanton returning to B.M.H.S. look better everyday.

Keri Boyd and Mr. Staveley congratulate themselves on a successful bone marrow drive.

Two Graduates

The history of 1983 repeated itself this fall for Mr. Sidorovich as he watched Tom Glavine become the Atlanta Braves star pitcher.

Sidorovitch coached Tom on the B.M.H.S. Varsity baseball team from 1981-1984. Coach Sid watched Tom start in the All-Star game in Toronto last summer and later saw him receive the Cy Young Award at the awards dinner, triggering memories of the 1983 state championships in which Tom was the starting pitcher.

"It's kind of a fairy tale type thing . . . . to see someone you've coached on television," Sidorovich said. "You still see the young Tom Glavine, but you see the same traits on a different level."

Mr. Sid does not claim to have foreseen Tommy's success. "That's a giant step, to see a kid as a freshman and think of whether he could be in the major leagues someday."

However, Tom did stand out while he was in high school. He played Varsity all four years and as a freshman was a leading hitter. "He always showed that he was a step ahead of everyone else." Tom was able to "dominate" in varsity baseball even as a freshman, Sid added.

Tom also had the "emotional talent" that makes a great athlete, according to Mr. Sid. "He was very under control emotionally" and "very mature at a young age."

"The combination of the two and talent really makes up a great athlete," Mr. Sidorovitch said.

He offered some insight into how Tom has changed since his high school days. "I think he's become more of a pitcher," Sid said. "He was probably more of a thrower in high school, where he could throw the ball past people and strike them out . . . . I think he's really learned to pitch at the major league level."

Coach Sid sees no adverse effects of success on Tom's personality: "He's the same great kid . . . He was a great kid in high school and I don't think he's lost respect about anything. It hasn't gone to his head."

Mr. Sidorovitch doesn't think Tom's view of Billerica has changed much either. "Whenever he's home he stops by the school and comes to see me. I don't think he's forgotten where he comes from . . . I don't think his success has changed him at all."

This high school coach expects his former student's success to continue. "He's still very young . . . and he's accomplished so much . . . Some pitchers have never done any of these things . . . His potential is unlimited."

Think of the theatre: brightly-lit marquees, crowded "cattle calls," and air charged with the energy of young performers, each determined to be that one in a million. Now think: a Billerica high graduate is part of this bright world.

here is little opportunity for Fred's ego swell, said Cox. "Relative to Billerica our high school program, he's really cessful. But, when he goes and travels und with major performers, then suddenly he's struggling again."

Fred agreed with this. "There are literally probably about 150 other kids my age, same height, same voice, who could walk in and do the role."

Fred plans on being struggling again soon, back to a life of three or four auditions a week and unemployment. Although "Les Miserables" is booked into 1994, Fred only plans to stay with the tour until the end of 1992, when he will go back to New York and "start all over again."

Fred has no grand designs for the future. "I'd be happy if my career stayed on this . . . level of production for a long time. But eventually I'd like to move on to doing some straight theatre . . . Who knows? T.V., film, it doesn't really matter to me as long as I can afford to live."

For advice for those graduating from high school and perhaps dreaming of the success he's had, Fred offers this: "Go to college, get a degree . . . You cannot survive out there nowadays without a college degree. I'm the extreme exception to the rule."

"I think we have had any number of talented kids at Billerica High School, and I think anyone of them could have had this success," said Dr. Cox. "The distinction is the drive that Fred has . . . some of the others will fall by the wayside along the way." But not Fred. He made it!

Mock Trial 1992

The year 1992 saw the birth of the Mock Trial team of B.M.H.S.. As part of the Statewide Mock Trial Tournament. Billerica was given the chance to prepare and present an actual case to the court. The participating students received a chance to view a courtroom different from the ones seen on weekly television shows, while at the same time improving their listening, speaking, reading, and reasoning skills.

Hosted by the Massachusetts Bar Association, the competition involves area schools each assuming a different side of a fictitious court case. The MBA tries to come up with a set of facts of some interest to high school students. This year's case involved daycare workers being sued for negligence in not recognizing the signs of child abuse in one of their young students. Approximately 15 Billerica High students, and advisor Mr. Giroux, worked diligently to sort through the facts of the case. It is necessary for the students to study not only the case from a lawyer's stand point but also from the witnesses' point of view because on the actual day in court some students assume the roles of witnesses while others portray attorneys.

The first round competition is divided into three semi-final tournaments. The schools that win in this round continue to the second round. In Billerica's first trial as the plaintiff, they met against Tewksbury High School. Although Tewksbury was an experienced team, Billerica only lost by a small margin. The second match, with Billerica assuming the role of the defense, was against Westford Middle School. Despite a minimal loss, the team felt that they had performed very effectively and professionally. Unfortunately, they didn't receive a change to go against their third rival because that team forfeited. Hope ly the next year the team can capt a spot in the second round.

While they may not have come on top, the seniors on the team . Ciano, Tracy Graves, and Cassie C man along with the other memb walked away with an appreciation the legal system, as well as an awa ness of the work involved in law-re ed professions.

ANY WAY you look at Spring Sports

Ah, spring. Spring is really what sport is all about. Disciplined bodies moving through warm, fragrant air doing just what training prepared them to do. Spheres of all sizes and weights zinging across blue skies into mitts or nets. Even drills and laps seems easier in the spring. Well, maybe we're getting carried away.

Lacrosse turned in an admirable 13-5 season followed by tournament play. Billerica Indians put in sparkling seasons on diamonds all over the Merrimack Valley. Beth Love, a pitching powerhouse, led her softball team to a 16-4 record. Girls tennis returned with a 10-6 effort much improved from years past.

Boys Volleyball

The Billerica Boys Volleyball team, led by seniors Paul Brady, Robbie Mahoney, and Ron Smith, began its 1992 season with high expectations. The Indians' hopes were soon realized as the team swept through the first five matches undefeated, including a hard-fought win over Lowell, and an amazing come-back victory over Andover. The Indians dropped out of first place with a tough loss to Milford, but evened the score the very next week by beating Milford in our own Memorial Gym. A heartbreaking loss to Chelmsford meant the end of hopes for the North Division Title, but it did not keep the Indians from finishing 12-2 in the North Division, and ranking fifth in the Eastern Mass. league—not bad for a team with only nine total wins in all three previous seasons. Billerica's post-season ended at the hands of Brookline, who would later claim the Eastern Mass title.

Girls Softball

The Girls Softball team carried on the winning tradition in 1992. They started their season by defeating Lawrence, Chelmsford, and Dracut. This sparked the team on their race for the M.V.C. title.

During the first round of the State Tournament the Indians beat Melrose. The Indians moved on to play Haverhill. Haverhill was Billerica's toughest competition all season. In the regular season Billerica went 10 innings to beat them. However, when Billerica faced them in the State Tournament Haverhill came out on top. Billerica earned the M.V.C. Co-Champs title.

The team graduates Karen Hayes, Holly Sherwood and Tri-Captains Jennie Magararu, Kayleen McNulty and Jackie Pettingell. The seniors thank coach Josie McCafferty and wish the best of luck to the team in 1993.

Boys Baseball

Success was the key word for the spring baseball season. The team, led by seniors Chris Monti, Scott Rumley, Dennis Pasche, and John Quinlan romped over rival Chelmsford with a score of 11-4 and turned in a 13-6 overall record, placing second in the MVC Large School Division. They capped off their season with a tenth straight trip to the Division One State Tournament. In this tournament, they defeated South Boston with a score of 2-1 and advanced to the semi-finals. In the semi-finals they suffered a tough loss to Arlington, ending their tournament play.

In addition to a successful season, the experiences and friendships gained by the players made their careers on the B.M.H.S field proud and memorable.

Lacrosse

The Billerica High Lacrosse team finished with another successful season led by head coach Steve Connolly. They finished with a record of 13 wins and 5 losses and shared the North League title with Lexington.

This year's schedule was a lot rougher than ever before, playing all the top teams in Eastern Mass. Considering the small number of seniors and the large number of inexperienced players, the team still managed to get into the third round of the state tournament.

The team played with poise and determination and it showed in a triple overtime win over Lexington in the second round of the state tournament. The score was tied at 5 after four long quarters of play. Then with 34 seconds left in the third overtime. Senior captain Greg Zuick took a feed from Paul D'Angelo and fired it past the Lexington goalie to give Billerica a 6-5 win.

This win sent Billerica to the third round of the toumament, which is the farthest in twelve years. Unfortunately, the team lost 11-7 to a tough Concord Carlisle team, thus ending the season with a final record of 15 wins and 6 losses.

The team was led by tri-captain all stars: Craig Flynn, Matt Tholander and Greg Zuik. Other seniors were Erik Kukis, Joe Salerno, Jason Tholander, Paul D'Angelo and Shawn Lucien.

Girls Track

The 1992 Girls' Spring Track team completed this season with a strong 3-3-1 finish. The team consisted mostly of underclassmen, with only 7 seniors. The girls were led by seniors Kim Mederios, Chrissy O'Loughlin, Elaine Polsi, quad-captains Nikki Fitzgerald, Jenn Basque, Robyn Hammer, and Michelle Rouine.

Participation in many non-MVC track meets brought in other tremendous performances. These meets included the freshman-/sophomore meet, Wilmington Invitational, MVC Championship, and the Northern Area track meet.

The biggest meet of the season came with the girls' victory over Lawrence, 105 to 31. Top finishes were earned by numerous girls. In the field events Alison Morrissey, Robyn Hammer, Jenn Basque, and Heather Andrews all took first place in the javelin, shot put, discus, and triple jump respectively. In the running events, first place went to Sherri Beck (2 mile), Tanya Yavarow (100m hurdles and 300m hurdles), Laura Traynham (1 mile), the team of Heather Andrews, Nicole Tzannos, Carissa Stewart, and Amy DeGironimo (4 x 100 relay), Linda King (400), Jen Rouine (800m), DeGironimo (200), and the team of Dina Passalaqua, Bernadette Donovan, Stephanie Walsh, and Lisa Blades (4 x 400).

At the state class A meet, Sherri Beck qualified for the All-State meet with a fourth place finish and a personal best of 11:42.0 in the two mile.

Congratulations to all the girls for an excellent season.

Boys Track

The Boys Spring Track Team finished the season with a 2-6 record. That may sound like a bad season, but it really wasn't. The team was close in all of its losses and had some very good performances throughout the year. Led by captains Corey Cameron, Erik Dow, Charlie Legg, and Dave Suchecki, the team strived to do its best throughout the entire season.

Injuries did plague the team by keeping such key members as John Keough and John Barbarossa, who was one of the teams highest pointgetters, out of competition. The team got many great performances from newcomers though. These new additions included freshman Brendan Finn in the 400, sophomore Ed Crowley in the Hurdles and Triple Jump, and senior Dana Cottrell in the 100 and Shot Put.

Some of the year's best performances came in the MVC Championships. Corey Cameron, who also won the Haverhill Invitational and placed second at the Northern Area meet, won the 800 with a time of 2:01.1. Erik Dow placed sixth in the 800 with a clocking of 2:06. The 4x100 team of Paul Bellino, John Barbarossa, Jonathan Duggan, and Dana Cottrell placed third. Lastly, the 4x400 team of Brendon Finn, Ed Crowley, Erik Dow, and Corey Cameron placed sixth.

Graduating seniors include John Barbarossa, Dana Cottrell, Erik Dow, Todd Driscoll, John Keough, Charlie Legg, Brian Ruggiero, and Dave Suchecki.

Girls Tennis

The 1992 tennis season was an impressive one for Billerica. After a disappointing season last year, the team, led by senior captain Kathy Doyle, managed to make it to the state tournament with a record of 10-6.

Needing to beat Haverhill to make it to the states, the girls pulled together and won 3-2. However, they suffered a difficult defeat in the first round of the states.

First singles player Sindi Boudreau had an excellent record with another year to build on. Strong performances were turned in by second and third singles players Kathy Doyle and Julie Gibson. Gibson, only a sophomore, played hard all season. The first doubles team of junior Laurie Savage and sophomore Casey Mahoney played well together with great attitudes. It's going to be tough to replace the second doubles team of seniors Pat Morrison and Karen Rivard. However, alternating doubles partners Barbie Solomon and Danielle Troy are promising. The 1993 season has a lot of potential.

Boys Tennis

The Boys tennis team was faced with many challenges during the 1992 season. Though the team suffered many losses, they still played tough and defeated strong teams such as Lowell, Haverhill, and Methuen.

The team was anchored this year by seniors who helped improve the team's record over the previous rebuilding year. Playing first singles, Ty Munson was almost unbeatable and was named an M.V.C. All-Star. Brian Gibson and Craig Bridge were strong in the first doubles although their scores didn't always show it. After much juggling in the second doubles lineup, Keith Bridge made every effort to win the team a point in that spot. In second and third singles, Kevin Taylor and Jason Reid played their finest tennis for the team.

Under the guidance of Coach Tom Severo, Co-Captains Brian Gibson and Ty Munson, and unofficial assistant coach Tim Gibson, the team improved throughout the season. Even though the team will lose four varsity members, Coach Severo should have no problem rebuilding with players like Chris Spring, Bob Hudson, Scott Bolser, D.J. Butler, and Jack Diaz.

ANY WAY you look at Senior Events

It Appears To Be One Of Those Mysteries Of Life That As One Approaches A Goal, Time Inexplicably Speeds Up. Freshman Year Seemed Agonizingly Long. Sophomore Year Moved Along Nicely. Junior Year Whizzed By, And Senior Year Was A Blur Of Activity.

Packed Into A Period Of Just A Few Weeks Were The Events That We'll Remember As Our High School Experience. Oklahoma And The Senior Recital Were High Notes For Musically Talented Seniors. Awards Night Honored Those Who Worked Especially Hard. The Prom And Class Day Were Celebrations Full Of The Joy Of People Who Had Come A Long Way From Kindergarten Together. Sign-Out Day Was The Equivalent Of Kicking Off Your Shoes And Running On The Beach On The First Day Of Summer. Freedom After A Job Well-Done.

B.M.H.S. Musical More Than OK

Voices rang on the stage, farmers and cowboys danced together, and the audience applauded as the full ensemble sang "Oklahoma." The 1992 spring musical "Oklahoma" came to life as the curtain opened on the night of April 9, 1992.

As the witty Aunt Eller (Pat Morrison) sat and churned her butter, the handsome bow-legged Curly (Greg Hoyt) strolled onto the farm. Singing and bragging about his beautiful hired surrey, Curly hoped to catch the eye of the stubborn Laurey Williams (Robin Lynch) and take her to the box social.

Laurey refused Curly's invitation to the box social because she didn't believe he hired such a classy rig. The matter was settled when Jud Fry (John Krochune), Laurey's hired hand, announced that he would escort Laurey.

All of the women anxiously prepared their hampers to be auctioned off at the box social. Laurey, however, had some doubts about her date, Jud Fry.

Laurey wasn't the only one with men problems. Ado Annie (Kelley Robertson) was torn between the cowboy Will Parker and the "persian" peddler man (Lyle Aker).

The tension grew during the auction scene when Jud bid everything he owned all for Laurey. Curly matched him by selling his horse and his saddle. Finally, Curly was able to beat Jud's bid when he sold his gun. Aunt Eller kept spirits high and told "territory folks to stick together." Farmers and cowboys sang and danced together and enjoyed the box social. Laurey confessed her love for Curly and agreed to marry him. Ado Annie also chose to marry Will Paker, relieving the peddler man only for a short while. Soon after, the peddler was trapped into marrying Gertie Cummings (Cindi Misenor) with her unbearable laugh.

In the final scene, after the wedding of Curly and Laurey, friends gathered to tease the bride and groom with a western shivaree. Jud, who was fired by Laurey, suddenly appeared and wanted a kiss from the bride. When he tried to kiss her, Curly pushed him away. Jud pulled out a knife and attacked Curly. During the struggle, Jud fell on his own knife and died.

The sheriff wanted to take Curly into town for a trial. Instead of putting him in jail on his wedding night, the trial was held right there. The verdict was not guilty.

The curtain closed after the full ensemble sang "Oklahoma" and Curly and Laurey came riding out in the surrey "with the fringe on top."

Ali Hakim (Lyle Aker) tells the audience that married life is a scandal an an outrage.

Ado Annie (Kelley Robertson) tells her father (Brian Hammer) that the peddler man wants to marry her.

Cindy Dennis and Taryn Munson dance Will Parker (Chad Belang around the stage.

Graduation: One Last Look

" . . . We have come here tonight to finalize our passage from the sheltered world of high school to the uncertainties of the 'Real World.'

We have moved from the comfort of the Donut Shop, the predictability of gym classes, and the annoying backdrop of Channel One to the worries of full-time work or the pressures of starting over next fall at college.

. . . Starting tonight we have the power we have so long sought, the power to make a difference in a society that up until now we have had to accept.

. . . Every year at graduation we hear the varied reasons why such-and-such class was the best. Let it be said that our class of 1992 was the best ever to graduate Billerica, not because of our accomplishments in high school but because of what we changed after we graduated."

Jared Bibler: Valedictorian

" . . . For 12 years, 2160 days, we have all endured math, science, English, Social Studies and various other subjects in order to achieve a single goal. Whether you were ranked one or 341 you are a success today. Class rank is now meaningless. As of today we are all equal, we are all high school graduates . . . As of today the slate is clean, you may enter the next phase of our life with the knowledge that you are a success.

The BMHS class of 1992 has overcome many obstacles to accomplish all that we have achieved. We will continue to do so in the future as we strive to put right all that the older generation has done wrong with our country. We are the light, we are the future. The older generation fears us; they call us apathetic and substanceless only because they are afraid to admit that it is they who are responsible for our country's problems . . . We shall prove that we are not apathetic and we will lead our country to a better tomorrow.

Kevin Brown: Salutatorian

" . . . A poster on the wall in Mr. Tsoukalas' chemistry room reads, 'Don't hurry, Don't worry, And don't forget to smell the flowers.' This is a great saying to live by. Take your time, don't jump to conclusions. Don't get wrapped up in worryin about what others think; this in itself is a barrier in life. Also, allow yourself to remain open to others in order to enjoy life.

As Dr. Seuss said:

Congratulations
Today is your day.
You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away!
You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You're on your own. And you know what you know.
And YOU are the person who'll decide where to go."

THE GRADUATION
by Jennifer Babbitt

Knowing that the time is near
We begin to think back
Upon all that we've shared

Freshman year is when it began
Wondering "where are we going?"
Look around this is foreign land.

Softmore year we knew all the tricks,
Where did that pool go anyway?
Time to act like high school kids,

Upper Classmen, we've earned our title,
Show our spirit with green and white
Beating the seniors in a great battle.

Now shown them all we rose to the top,
Mighty seniors stand tall, be proud.
We've made it together we did not stop.

Graduation is coming and we will part,
Moving away, leaving our homes,
It's now our time to make a new start

As you grow may your dreams begin to fly
Good Luck in the future
With this poem I will say Good Bye.
